New! Sourdough by Bonilla Bread

Free Tasting! Saturday January 24 @9AM-12PM

We are so excited to announce that, for the first time ever, hyper-locally produced fresh sourdough bread from High Points Bakery, aka Bonilla Bread, will be available year-round -- ONLY at the Littleton Food Co-op!

The Bonilla family has been churning out delicious quick and sweet breads for us for years, but now they are going to be treating us to no-yeast sourdough bread every week! And this isn't just any 'ol loaf; we're talking white, everything bagel, rosemary lemon, jalapeno cheddar, chocolate chip, and more made with love right up the road in Bethlehem, NH.

Fresh-baked Bonilla Bread sourdough will be delivered every Saturday morning, and to kick things off, members of the family-business will be at the Co-op offering samples this Saturday. Whether you're one of their Littleton Farmers' Market fans who have been waiting for the day you could start getting your fix year round, or just a lover of fantastic bread, we hope you'll stop by and support!

Artist Reception: Peggy Deyette

Saturday January 31 @1-3 PM

Peggy Deyette's oil paintings include plein-air landscapes and lovely still-life studies, which will all be on display in the Co-op Cafe now through the end of February. These pieces really are best viewed in person with your own two eyes! Come in for a cup of coffee or tea and take a look at some local art. Better yet - buy and bring one home!

A Retrospective With Ed King

EPISODE #57 The Man, the Myth, the General Manager

Listen On

As the new year begins, we are also welcoming new beginnings. This includes saying goodbye to our longtime General Manager, Ed King, who is retiring. After sixteen years of dedicated service to the Co-op, he certainly deserves this transition. But we couldn't let him leave without one last farewell on the pod!

On this episode, Ed sits down with host Anastasia for a co-op career retrospective covering highlights, regrets, and what comes next – for the Littleton Co-op and one of the most prominent people behind it. This episode is a masterclass in how to lead others down the road least expected, gracefully pass on a legacy, and “smile because it happened.”

FRESH, NEW, & FUN

Wellness, All Year Long

Now that January is coming to a close, we can all just give up on those wellness goals we set on Dec. 31st, right??

NOPE. While the Co-op might not be singing "rise and shine" for the rest of the year, we still have plenty of wellness solutions to help you succeed -- whatever wellness means to you.

For example: every Wednesday, Littleton Co-op Members save 5-10% on all ingestible items in the Wellness Department. That's your vitamins, supplements, protein drinks powders, etc. That's on top of other eligible discounts, like our Weekly Specials!

You know what they say: a spoonful of savings helps the medicine go down.

Once Upon A Farm

New! Once Upon a Farm is led by real moms, registered dietitians, child development specialists, the former Annie's CEO, and actress Jennifer Garner (yep!); aka a group of people who know what developing humans need and want in a snack. We have no added sugar oat bars, cold-pressed oat milk smoothies, organic fruit and veggie purees, and more. Great for all ages!

Are Snails Seafood? Hmmm....

The Seafood Department is bringing European-inspired cuisine to the Co-op! Now in the Seafood freezer (aisle 1) you'll find escargot! White Toque offers this beautiful dozen of very large helix snails in-shell, with a decadent garlic and parsley butter. This is the same escargot you'd find at upscale bars and restaurants. Valentine's Day, anyone?

PRINCIPLES IN ACTION

Principle 5: Education, Training, & Info

Principle 7: Concern For Community

Becky, our Community Relations Manager, attended the grand opening of the Littleton Senior Center Salad Bar and gave a short presentation on healthy eating. Suffice to say, it was a big hit! We are proud to be working with the Senior Center to source fresh ingredients for their new salad bar.

Cooperative Principles in Action:

Our Co-op is more than just a grocery store - we follow a set of co-op principles along with our mission & vision. More: littletoncoop.com/about
